Spring, 2025

Dear Friend of Chicago's Airport Chapels,

We regularly receive supportive and encouraging notes from travelers who have come to the chapels. Recently, Charlie L., a church musician, wrote these kind words to us:

...as I approach my 84th birthday, much has changed. For one, my days of business and other travel to or through Chicago, punctuated by the obligatory reconstitutive stop at the Airport Chapel have come to an end...Please be assured that my sincere gratitude and full spiritual and financial support for the invaluable service you provided this weary traveler for so many years and continue to provide for millions of travelers continue unabated. Please also know that we will remember the Chicago Airport Chapels...during these Lenten and Easter seasons, and for a long time thereafter.

If the chapels have served you well, we would love to hear from you. Even more, we want to encourage you to spread the word about the chapels. Many people are happily surprised to find out that there are chapels at O'Hare and Midway airports. In the middle of the often-stressful experience of traveling, they are delighted to find a place where they can re-group and find peace and a place to pray.

Your financial support helps us to continue the mission of the chapels. Of course, we are grateful for that. But know that many other people who benefit from the chapels are also grateful.

We promise to pray for you and your loved ones at the chapels. Please pray for me and all my colleagues at the chapels—Catholic, Jewish, Muslim, and Protestant—as well as the people we serve.

God bless you always,

Fr. Michael G. Zaniolo
